Naturopathic Doctors in Sudbury - Naturopath and Chiropractor Richard Bartlett first developed in the year 1997, a transformative healing system referred to as Matrix Energetics after going through a life-altering event. Dr. Bartlett discovered that he could bring back mental, emotional, physical and spiritual balance in people with light touching with focused intention. As an added extra, he can correct misalignments which had bothered a few of his clients for several years. Richard discovered that he could teach anybody this practice that combines subtle energy together with focused intent, active imagination and quantum physics.

The physical body is a resonating matrix of information within the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns in the resonating matrix can become transformed from emotional or physical injury. These disturbances could cause embedded habits or perceptions that can block an individual from obtaining a condition of happiness, prosperity, health and various positive situations. Matrix Energetics works to remove blockages, transfer these ingrained patterns and transform core beliefs in order to enable the patient to attain their objectives to be able create the quality of life and kind of life preferred.

Matrix Energetics practitioners believe that preconceived notions of limitations are the source of a person's problems and that these limitations could be removed at once through the healing system of Matrix Energetics. This particular healing system is believed to eliminate the sources of both chronic and temporary issues like for example emotional trauma, headaches, muscle spasms, scoliosis and fibromyalgia among others.

The system of Matrix Energetics is a stand alone healing method although numerous practitioners utilize it so as to improve other healing techniques. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner could transform the belief system of the client and could transform her or his beliefs about the nature of disease, the healing process and the structure of reality. Commonly, recipients can feel a wave pass throughout their bodies as their previous view of reality is transformed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

At the quantum level, space and time are not part of realism. The consciousness of a person, according to the quantum theory, could affect how subatomic particles behave. Since the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, which can be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta could appear all over concurrently and also move backward or forward in time. An individual's consciousness could have an effect on these quanta to change physical matters and emotions. This information and these views have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are responsible for the shifts that take place on the cellular level within the client.
